Johanna assists Swedish and international clients with acquisitions, majority and minority investments, capital raisings, corporate law matters, and commercial agreements. She advises both private equity and industrial clients and has extensive experience representing founders in the sale of their companies across a wide range of industries. In addition, she works continuously with commercial contracts and supports clients at every stage of the supply chain and across a broad spectrum of sectors. She serves on boards of directors in various companies, either as board secretary or as a board member. Johanna is appreciated for her commercial, curious, and solution-oriented approach. She understands what availability truly means and the value it brings to a collaboration.
