Rebecca Edvardsson is a lawyer in Vinge's EU, Competition and Regulatory practice, advising clients on complex matters across Swedish and EU competition law, public procurement, and foreign investment control. Rebecca has particular experience navigating merger control, competition compliance, including risk assessments, notifications, and compliance strategies for cross border transactions. Rebecca regularly supports multinational and domestic clients in regulated sectors, delivering pragmatic, business focused counsel grounded in regulatory insight and procedural experience before Swedish and EU authorities.

Rebecca joined Vinge in 2021 and completed a secondment to Vinge's Brussels office in 2023.
